

Gary Trojanowski

Originally from New Jersey & moved to Connecticut 28 years old (Corporate relocation)
Married 42 years to Jan & have a 35-year-old son Justin who lives with his wife Lauren in Corte Madera. One grandchild, and a grand puppy named Arlo (English Springer Spaniel)
Worked as a Cost Accountant for Sun Chemical (2 yrs) & Singer Sewing Machines (2 yrs).
Worked for Warner-Lambert for 28 years as a Financial Manager in the Parke-Davis pharmaceutical division, a Director in Corporate Acquisitions, Divestitures & Strategic Planning and a Senior Direction for Schick/Wilkinson Sword.
Worked in Finance for Pfizer after their acquisition of Warner-Lambert and then Energizer.
The last years of my career I did financial consulting work for various Connecticut based companies like Stanly Tools.
I like meeting with friends, follow most sports with a special interest in Boston professional teams (also now root for the Warriors and 49ers) , gardening, running or walking at least seven miles every day (enter races once a month) and going to breweries. Play pool, bowling and bocce, but not well.
I retired about seven years ago.
Moved to Sonoma because our only child moved to San Francisco five years ago and then Corte Madera
Have done volunteer work for various blood drives & for several years did frequent Apheresis blood plasma donations.
Volunteered for a number of road races that raised funds for cancer research and other good causes.
I like to read, run/walk/hike and watch sports.
I had prostate cancer 2-1/2 years ago, cancer undetectable after surgery. I am a big advocate of men getting annual PSA blood tests.
