

Stephen is a retired design engineer. He currently lives in the same housing facility and has become good friends with Gary Jensen. He can often be found attending Tuesday morning coffee hour. While he is currently out of commission with some health issues, we hope to see him again soon.